Vaibhav Bhoir

Web Developer

I'm a web developer . I have build several websites , looking at the design I can convert it into a HTML CSS template with pixel perfect precision . I use bootstrap very often , so the turn around of my project is very quick and I always use GIT to track my progress and files, as well to collaborate with other developers also i have knowledge of nodejs, expressjs and database. I'm looking for the position where I can progress and challenge my skills.
